

Doing Research In Perilous Times

Strategies and Tactics for CAHSS Faculty - Part 2

This event will feature two panels of experts and group discussion regarding the kinds of challenges that currently exist in higher education and how to support these efforts in the face of federal retrenchment.

Coffee and light breakfast will be served at 9:30am

- Panel I - Challenges & Strategies for Research: Diversity, Academic Freedom & Data - 10:15am to 11:45am

- Dr. Jennifer Wells, New College of Florida
- Dr. Tina Kelleher, Towson University; American Association of University Professors (AAUP) Maryland Conference representative and Chair of Membership for national AAUP
- Dr. Juliana Pare-Blagojev, Johns Hopkins University, former president of the Johns Hopkins University chapter of AAUP
- Dr. Nick Hart, President, Data Foundation

Lunch and group discussion led by Marc Ruppel, Director, Creative Achievement and Research Development and Administration, UMBC
12pm to 1pm

- Panel II - Foundations & New Funding Opportunities - 1pm to 2:15pm
 - Jason Rhody, Senior Director of Engagement Strategy, Modern Language Association
 - Patrick Roche, Vice President, Office of Institutional Advancement, UMBC
 - Dr. Brett Theodos, Senior fellow and director of the Community Economic Development Hub, Urban Institute

Moderated by Dr. Christine Mallinson, Assistant Vice President for Research and Scholarly Impact, Division of Research and Creative Achievement, UMBC

Conclusion and next steps, 2:15pm to 3pm

Register using the QR code

Friday, October 17 , 2025 | 10am - 3pm | Fine Arts Room 011